TRAIN DESCRIPTION

Al Andalus is probably the most spacious and exclusive tourist train in the world. It's four saloons, real railway jewels built between 1928 and 1930, are the perfect scenario in which the breakfast a la carte and selected dinners and three course meals are served. Travelling in Al Andalus is also travelling around the rich Spanish Cuisine, with it's countless dishes that are rooted in the culinary traditions of the people that have shaped it's history.

Bar service allows the traveller to enjoy at any time of an espresso, a sherry or a Tom Collins, relax in the elegant saloons, while the landscape is running through the large windows, or in the privacy of your comfortable room. At the end of the day it is time to enjoy the parties, music, cultural and gastronomic activities or live performances that are offered on board.
